

DeLaval Ltd is a market leader in Ireland and worldwide for complete milking and herd management solutions. Over 100 people are directly or indirectly employed with its dealer network working in partnership with Irish farmers for the last 75 years.

REGIONAL SALES MANAGER (AFTERMARKET)

Due to the impending retirement of the present manager the company invite applications from suitably experienced persons for this important development role.

They need to recruit an energetic and enthusiastic person to support and develop the sales of parlour accessories, dairy hygiene products and farm supplies. The successful candidate will operate from home and be responsible for an area north of Dublin to Galway (including Northern Ireland).

This person will have a good Agribusiness education/qualification and an interest in dairy farming. Commercial experience is desirable as one is expected to provide effective support and training for dealers, service teams and on farm advice where necessary.

If you have good communication, IT, organisation and people skills plus the motivation to succeed this is an excellent opportunity to join an innovative & expanding business.

The attractive remuneration package includes a competitive salary, bonus scheme, company car, generous expenses, life insurance and pension scheme.

If your CV meets these criteria and you wish to join a successful multinational with travel and promotion opportunities forward all relevant details in confidence to Liam de Paor. Please feel free to phone us for further information. Deadline for applications: July 11th.
